

Rule Execution

Workflow Assignment Rules execute automatically when a workflow process is created, ensuring assignments are established before users interact with the workflow.

Important

All assignments must be valid for Workflow Process to be able to proceed correctly.

