

Definitions

This section defines the terms used in this document.

Term	Definition
Code tree	The set of files that make up the application files for Aras Innovator.
Code tree patch	The set of files in an application installation package applied to the code tree to install the code tree component.
Config transformation	The transformation sourced into the project repository corresponding to changes in configuration files of Aras Innovator code tree.
Import package	The set of XML files and the corresponding import.mf file representing a package or set of packages that need to be installed to apply the database changes of an application.
Installation package	The set of files utilized to install an application (may include a code tree patch, an import package, and/or converters).
Platform Component	Not release-specific components that can be installed without a direct dependency on the installed Aras Innovator release.

