

Contributor Process

The Local Development Environment (LDE) section introduced the LDE and explained the configuration process and procedures for building and deploying a local instance of Aras Innovator.

This section outlines how to enable a contributor to make contributions.

