

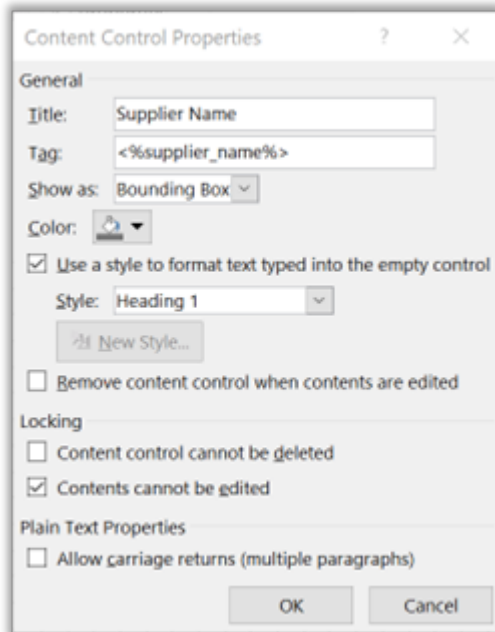

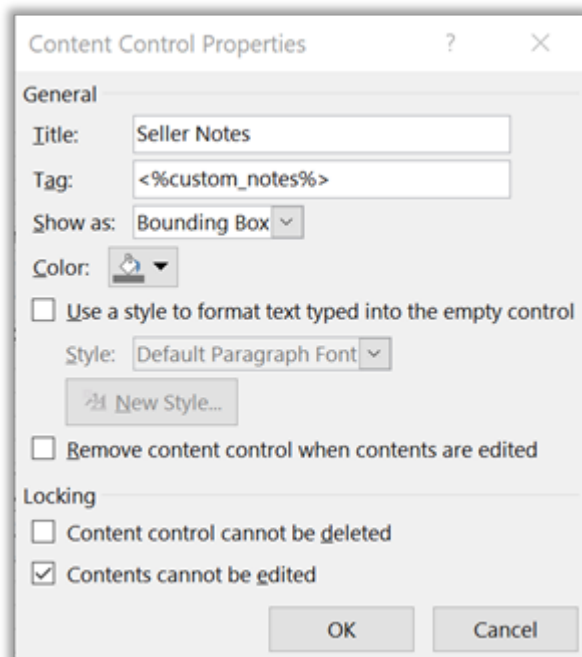

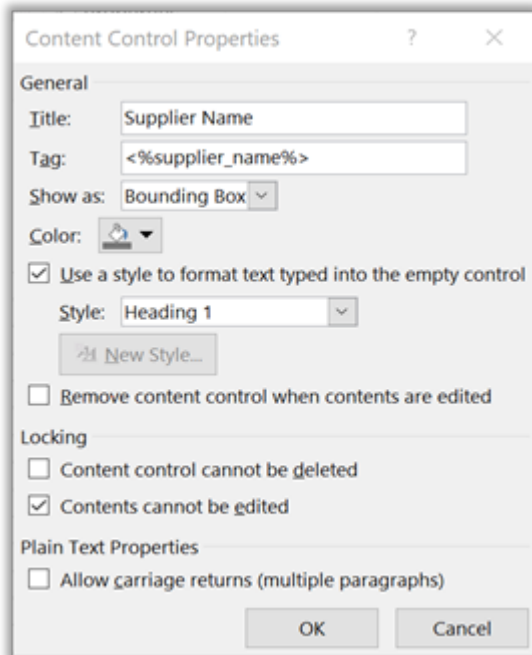

Mapping to remove empty content controls along with Label

1. Add label as plain text content control. In the properties dialog, check the option “Contents cannot be edited” .

2. Label content control and data content control title should be same as shown below

3. Template designers can use line and spacing settings in Microsoft Word to add extra space after a content control. As shown in below image for Seller Note data content control.

