

Rule Validation

- Rule Validation is available to user to check if expression is correct. It will check for any syntax errors, property and method validation.
- If there are any errors, user will be presented with error message.

