

Case 2

Case 2 represents a situation in which the user needs a relationship between the new Item Types and the existing Item Types. The user must now define relationships and specify dependencies.

