

Single Page

The template created in Aras ProAppDesigner can be single page or multi page. If the template has only one page, then it is called a single page application. In case of single page wizard, item keyed-name is used to show the page title.

