

Toolbox

Toolbox is shown vertically in the studio with all available controls. In order to place any control in the page, you need to select container where you need to place the control. When container or control is selected from the page, only those controls which can be added to the page with respect to selected control will be enabled in the Toolbox. Each control from the Toolbox will be explained in detail later in the following sections.

