

Installing the Event Handling Framework Platform Component

The Event Handling Framework component can be installed using either the Automated Installation option (using the Aras Update tool), or the Manual Installation option (using the Aras Import tool).

